

Report on a Special Lecture (09/03/2023)

Department of Political Science, DHWU organised a day Seminar on 9th March 2023 at the Auditorium, Administrative Building, DHWU from 12pm to 2pm, in which the Guest Speaker was Retd. Prof. Debi Chatterjee.

The session was chaired by Dr. Debashis Mitra, Associated Professor, Department of Political Science, DHWU. The speaker primarily focused upon the intersectionality between caste and patriarchy in which the role of lived experience was highlighted. She also talked about the role of narrated biographies in this regard. Students and Faculty members had an interaction with the Speaker. The lecture concluded with the vote of thanks delivered by Assistant Professor Imran Khan.

